

Yet My Heart Yearns For Zion

Aromem

Verse 1

What <sup>Am</sup> moves my heart to <sup>G</sup> seek, what <sup>Am</sup> breathes this longing within <sup>G</sup> me?
Why <sup>F</sup> does my soul look toward the east.
A <sup>Am</sup> sea I've never <sup>G</sup> seen, hills and valleys <sup>Am</sup> strange to me,

Chorus 1

My <sup>F</sup> father's land is all I've ever <sup>Am</sup> known
Hunger and thirst have never <sup>F</sup> passed my <sup>Am</sup> home
I know each <sup>F</sup> song of morning <sup>G</sup> birds and coyotes' <sup>Em</sup> playful howls at <sup>F</sup> dusk

Chorus 2

My <sup>F</sup> father's land is all I've ever <sup>Am</sup> known
Why does my <sup>F</sup> hand reach for the <sup>Am</sup> unknown
As <sup>F</sup> Yahuwah's Spirit draws me <sup>G</sup> bird and beast <sup>Em</sup> cease to <sup>F</sup> speak
I hear the <sup>F</sup> roaring sound, "My children come out"
And so I <sup>Am</sup> turn my eyes (toward the eastern sky)
For my <sup>F</sup> heart <sup>G</sup> yearns <sup>Am</sup> for Zion
